For a backdrop of the matter, please refer to Criminal Complaints I to XXXI.

On September 6 2011 at 13:30 an unidentified person approached our home attempting to serve some documents. On our request the person, a woman, refused to identify herself.

Exhibit # 1: DVD – Video recording of the incident on September 6 2011

By examining the video it becomes evident that the unidentified woman, who claims to be a Court Bailiff (official person), attempted to carry out a successful service by deception, as she tried to force us to accept the service for only then to reveal her identity.

By this act she implied that – under the colour of an official right – she was entitled to have our acceptance before she would be obliged to identify herself.
